FROM: Rick Barton
TO: Sarah Jones
SUBJECT: A friend in Japan?
SENT: 9:17 a.m. @ home @ Paris

Dear Sarah,

Well, how is Tokyo? Are you studying hard? Do you have any free time? Can you take any vacation?

I talked to my aunt, and she knows a woman there. Her name is Keiko Noguchi. Keiko lived in New York for two years and studied art history. Now she's back in Japan and living in Tokyo. She's studying at a university there, and she works part time in a museum. Anyway, I bet Keiko's English is pretty good.

My aunt sent an e-mail to Keiko, so Keiko knows you're in Japan. You can e-mail her at knoguchi1132@cup.org. Keiko wants you to go to Kyoto with her. Kyoto is famous for its gardens and historic temples. And she says you can go and see a traditional show together. She saw a show there last week. She can tell you about it.

Anyway, everybody misses you! And I think about you all the time. Please send me an e-mail soon!

Rick

Come to the Worldwide Food Fair!

In the Student Center
TODAY (Friday)

Do you like to try new foods? Do you want to help your school? Now you can do both! Don't buy your lunch in the cafeteria today. Come to the Student Center, and take an eating tour of foods from around the world.

You can enjoy delicious food from many different countries! Students in the International Club are making dishes like spicy Mexican seafood, hot Italian pizza, and Vietnamese noodles with vegetables. Or try wonderful desserts. We have specialties like tofu ice cream or sweet, sticky rice. Even picky eaters can find something good.

The money from each sale at the Worldwide Food Fair goes to help buy new computers for our club. And prices are low! All you can eat for $7. Or you can buy a snack for just $3.

Come join us for fun and food: 11:30 a.m.–1:00 p.m.
